Comments

The crime in § 796.07(2)(a), Florida Statutes, is bumped up based on the number of prior violations. As of November 2022, it was unclear whether the existence of a prior violation is an element or a recidivist factor to be proven to the trial judge under a preponderance of the evidence standard at sentencing. Generally, it would be improper to allow the jury to hear about a prior violation. Therefore, if the information or indictment contains an allegation of one or more prior violations, do not read that allegation and do not send the information or indictment into the jury room. If the defendant is found guilty and if the prior violation is treated as an element, the historical fact of a prior violation should be determined by the jury beyond a reasonable doubt in a bifurcated proceeding. State v. Harbaugh, 754 So. 2d 691 (Fla. 2000).

As of November 2022, it was unclear whether acts done for bona fide medical purposes should be treated as an affirmative defense or as an element that the State must disprove. If treated as an affirmative defense, the judge must determine who has the burden of persuasion and what that burden is (preponderance, clear and convincing, or beyond a reasonable doubt).
